

T+1 Communications & Education Working Group List of Issues (at May 23, 2022)

#	Issue/Risk	Action Needed	Status/Comments
1.	Key stakeholder engagement: The Canadian co-ordinating team is small and part-time yet must keep pace with the considerably larger U.S. team; resource limits in Canada may impede progress.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Solicit involvement of key stakeholder associations/ organizations that can connect with all parts of the industry as communications channel Update contact database Seek advice from/share information with stakeholder associations to develop communications strategy Document main benefits/challenges for each industry segment/their clients Co-ordinate presentations to industry parties 	Complete Complete (Ongoing) Complete (Ongoing) Awaiting OWG Complete (Ongoing)
2.	CCMA website/LinkedIn: The CCMA website must be the recognized dissemination point of clear, consistent, reliable T+1 information multiple as conflicting sources cause confusion, cost and risk.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Update website for the T+1 program (English) Update website for the T+1 program (French) Plan average weekly LinkedIn posting Develop podcasts 	Complete (Ongoing) Underway Complete (Ongoing) To come
3.	Industry image/reputation: Capital markets are highly competitive and sensitive to real and perceived variations between markets; CCMA must deliver credible messages regarding Canada's preparations and preparedness for T+1	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Complete communications plan and schedule Prepare key messages, standby statements/Qs&As to be ready for questions Identify key data to support messaging Prepare approach for developing and releasing quick responses if needed Be prepared with key spokesperson(s) 	Complete Underway Underway Complete Complete
4.	Stakeholder T+1 awareness: Because of the breadth of firms T+1 affects, and the technical nature of T+1, there is a risk that T+1 will not be given the necessary firm priority until too late, affecting institutional and retail clients and negatively impacting Canadian markets.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Effective segment awareness-building approaches: events, webinars; FAQs; newsletters; media; surveys Tools re how different industry segments will be affected Expanded contact database Easy-to-understand and use <ol style="list-style-type: none"> list of affected products issue logs timeline Self-serve presentation with T+1 info T+1 impact, if any, on institutional and retail clients Work with regulators on supportive communications Surveys re awareness and readiness 	Underway Underway Complete (Ongoing) Underway TBD Complete (Ongoing) Pending TBD Underway First expected Q2
5.	Co-ordination with the U.S.: In light of the common T+1 deadline, Canada and the U.S. must both be ready at the same time, meaning not just systems/operations must be in synch, but also communications should be consistent.	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Work with U.S. counterparts to co-ordinate communications where necessary or desirable 	TBD
