

Keith Evans
Executive Director
Canadian Capital Markets (CCMA)

Keith Evans is Executive Director of the Canadian Capital Markets Association (CCMA), which is co-ordinating industry-wide efforts to shorten the securities settlement cycle from the current three days to a two-day period after trade date, or T+3 to T+2. Mr. Evans is a senior operations executive in the financial services industry, with extensive experience in clearing and settlement, corporate actions and project management. He worked for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited (CDS) for 36 years, most recently as Executive Director, Operations. There he was responsible for the day-to-day operations and strategy of Canada's national depository and clearing corporation.

John Abel
VP, Product Management, Settlement & Asset Services
Depository Trust and Clearing Corporation (DTCC)

John Abel is currently the Vice President of Settlement and Asset Servicing Strategy in the Product Management group at DTCC. Mr. Abel's primary responsibilities include identifying, evaluating and developing strategic business opportunities within DTCC's Settlement and Asset Servicing Product lines. In addition, Mr. Abel is currently responsible for leading DTCC's initiative to move to a shorter settlement cycle in the U.S. (T+2). Mr. Abel began his career at DTCC in 1987, and has held a number of Operational and Project related positions.

Jason O'Born
Director of Equity Operations
RBC Capital Markets

Jason O'Born has over 20 years of experience in broker-dealer operations. He is responsible for North American Equity Operations, which includes Clearance & Settlement, Prime Brokerage Operations, Institutional Trade Support, FX Processing and Options Clearing. Since joining RBC Dominion Securities in 1994, he has held a number of operations leadership roles, overseeing various capital market and wealth management functions, including Cash Control, Re-Registrations, Account Transfers, U.S. Money Market Operations, U.K. Operations, and Physical Securities processing. In addition to co-chairing the CCMA T+2 Steering Committee, he has been involved in a number of industry committees and working groups over the years. These include: CDS SDRC (System Development Review Committee) Debt/Equity Subcommittee, Chair of the FAS (Financial Administrators Section) Operations Fails Working Group and FAS New York Link/DTC Direct Link (Panel).

Mark Austin
Head of Trade Support
Connor Clark & Lunn (CC&L)

Mark Austin is responsible for global trade operations for the CC&L Financial Group, one of Canada's largest privately owned asset management firms. He worked for the London Stock Exchange and Royal Insurance Asset Management in London before moving to Vancouver where he joined CC&L in 1996. Mr. Austin manages teams in Vancouver and London responsible for middle office operations in all asset classes for seven affiliated portfolio managers in four different locations in Canada and in the United Kingdom.

Domenic Sgambelluri
Vice-President, Global Custody Operations
The Northern Trust Company, Canada

Mr. Sgambelluri is the Manager of Canadian and South American Settlements with The Northern Trust Company, Canada. Daily, direct interaction with other Canadian custodians, as well as the buy and sell side community, allow him to keep up to date with current market practices and any changes in settlement processing. Operationally, he represents Northern Trust in the Canadian marketplace. Currently Co-Chair of the CCMA Operations Working Group supporting Canada's T+2 initiatives and formerly the Vice-Chair of the CCMA Custodian Sub-Committee, Mr. Sgambelluri has been with The Northern Trust Company, Canada for 11 years. Prior to that, he spent 17 years with Canadian Depository for Securities in various roles, including Senior Account Manager, Customer Service and Manager, and Securities Custody.

Russ White
Director, Product Management (Funds)
Fundserv

Russ White, Director – Product Management (Funds) at Fundserv, has worked in the fund industry since 1989, starting his career at brokerage firm Richardson Greenshields. In 1993, he moved to 20/20 Group of Funds, which was subsequently purchased by AGF in 1996, where he remained until the sale of the Unisen business to Citigroup. In the Fall of 2013, Russ left Citigroup as the Director of Client Services and Dealer Relations to join Fundserv. Russ now has been with Fundserv for over two years, taking on a leadership role in the standards-setting process as well as in product development. Russ graduated from Brock University with an honours degree in Finance.